THE FOLLOWING IS A PART OF THE ‘GPCE’ CONTRACT

1. We expressly release the show’s sponsor, the Greater Philadelphia Coin Expo, hereinafter referred to as “GPCE”; their members, their assistants, and Greater Philadelphia Expo Center at Oaks, and their employees, from any and all claims or responsibility for any reason and all personnel and/or to our employees or our assistants or to our property, from any cause whatever, prior, during or subsequent to the periods covered by this contract.
2. Dealers are expected to operate their tables in a professional and business-like manner and maintain their table in an orderly and presentable condition. There is no smoking in the facility. If you must smoke it has to be outside! Dealers are responsible for collecting and paying any required sales taxes.
3. Bourse fees will not be refunded within thirty (30) days of the show date unless circumstances arise deemed extraordinary or special by the Show Committee.
4. It is understood that the GPCE is not an insurer and in no way does or intends to, provide insurance, the dealer for the time preceding, during, or after the show. In addition, GPCE is not responsible for theft, damage or loss of property prior, during or subsequent to the event.
5. Dealers and assistants will be issued badges and must have them displayed at all times during the show.
6. Dealers are not permitted to sell, lease, or transfer bourse tables to any other dealer.
7. Dealers are not permitted to change their assigned table location and/or use extra space without approval from the GPCE Show Director (Nicholas Campione).
8. Any violation of the aforementioned items listed in this show contract shall be just cause for the Show Director to close your bourse table and forfeit all bourse rental fees.
9. It is the intention of GPCE to conduct a safe and successful show. This can only be done with your help. We will assist you in any manner possible to make your show experience a good one.

THANK YOU AND GOOD LUCK AT THE SHOW!
